

PAO “Severstal” Energy Conservation Policy

The energy conservation policy complies with the objectives of PAO “Severstal” and the regulatory legal acts of the Russian Federation in the field of energy and energy saving constant observance of the environmental protection requirements.

Our liabilities:

- effective use of energy resources in the production, processing, transportation, storage, consumption and reduction of their specific weights per unit of production;
- creation and use of energy-efficient technologies, equipment, materials, building structures, planning methods, and automatic control systems;
- greatest possible use of secondary energy resources;
- and producers of energy resources;

- reduced energy consumption of steel produced.

OUR PRINCIPLES:

- energy saving is part of our Company’s strategy;
- systematic and integrated approach in the implementation of measures for energy saving and efficiency;
- ensuring optimal energy consumption;
- stimulation of the Company’s energy-efficient efforts and the use of energy-saving equipment and materials;
- priority of efficient use of energy resources;
- ensure the obligation and accuracy of the accounting of produced and consumed energy resources and control over their use .

Directorate of PAO “Severstal” assumes responsibility for the implementation of energy saving policy, deliberately and strictly follows the stated principles and encourages all employees to participate in its implementation.

